

NEWS RELEASE
3-31-11
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

COLUMBUS- Weber Insurance Agency in Columbus us pleased to announce that Mitch Freshour has joined the Weber Insurance team as a Licensed Insurance Agent.

Freshour graduated from the University of Arizona with a Bachelor's degree in Economics, Political Science, and Spanish.

Freshour was previously employed with an insurance agency in Raleigh, North Carolina where he was a commercial real estate broker. With Freshour's education and previous years of experience we feel that he will be a great asset to the Weber Insurance team.

Freshour, who loves the outdoors and sports, commented that he looks forward to serving the Columbus community with the high quality of customer service offered at Weber Insurance Agency. Freshour and his family are excited about their future in Columbus, a small town with unlimited opportunity.